Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What size are the bricks?

A: The bricks are standard sized (4 inches x 8 inches for individuals and families) or square sized (8 inches x 8 inches for organizations and businesses).

Q: Where is the Veterans Path of Honor located?

A: The path surrounds the flag pole in front of Building 1 on the historic and serene campus of the VA St. Louis Health Care System Jefferson Barracks Campus in south St. Louis County.

Q: Can I purchase a brick for someone who is not a veteran?

A: No. The purpose of the Veterans Path is to honor veterans and their service and sacrifice for our freedom. Bricks can be purchased for veterans by individuals and families or organizations and businesses who support veterans.

Q: What if my brick is wrong or misspelled?

A: It is your responsibility to check your order form for accuracy. We will review your form for obvious errors before your brick is ordered. If we have made an error transferring the information from your order form, you will receive a new brick at no additional charge. If it was your error, you are free to purchase a new brick at your expense.
