

My name is Mary Ann Jacobs. I am the nurse practitioner for the Spinal Cord Injury/ Dysfunction (SCI/D) Service. I received a diploma in nursing from The Jewish Hospital School of Nursing; a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Illinois College of Nursing, a Master of Science in Nursing from Saint Louis University and a Nurse Practitioner Certificate from The Jewish Hospital College of Nursing. I have 40 years of Spinal Nursing experience.

I work in collaboration with the SCI Physicians caring for SCI inpatients and outpatients. I also follow the SCI patients that are admitted to the John Cochran Division of the St. Louis VA Medical Center. I work closely with the SCI Nurse Manager to maintain quality nursing care of SCI patients. Along with 3 other nurses, we maintain the baclofen pump program at this VA. Particular areas of interest include sore, bowel and bladder care and the education of patients, families and staff.

I can be reached on the inpatient unit or at 314-894-5727 or 800-228-5459 ext. 6-4691.
