

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Kari Aiello, Pharm.D., BPCS – Primary Care

Dr. Aiello is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from Virginia Commonwealth University Medical College of Virginia. She completed her Community Pharmacy residency at St Louis College of Pharmacy. Dr. Aiello currently practices as clinical pharmacist in primary care team A annex and her clinical areas of interest include diabetes and women's health. Dr. Aiello is also an Adjunct Clinical Instructor at St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

Joy Boresi, Pharm.D., BCPS – Anticoagulation

Dr. Boresi is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Anticoagulation. She received her BS in Pharmacy and Pharm.D. degrees from St. Louis College of Pharmacy. She completed her Ambulatory Care specialty residency at Louis Stokes Cleveland VA Medical Center in Cleveland, Ohio. Dr. Boresi currently practices as an outpatient anticoagulation pharmacist for three community based outpatient clinics and the women's clinic. Her clinical areas of interest include anticoagulation and cardiology. Her hobbies include reading and spending time with friends and family.

Carole Bradley, Pharm.D., BCPS – Administration/Management, Primary Care

Dr. Bradley is Associate Chief of Pharmacy-Clinical Services and a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care. She received her bachelor of science and Pharm.D. from University of Mississippi. She completed her ambulatory care specialty residency at the Central Arkansas Veterans Health Care System. Dr. Bradley serves on several local, VISN, and national VA committees and workgroups. Her areas of interest include cardiology, endocrinology, and development of clinical services. Dr. Bradley has held an academic appointment as clinical instructor at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

U.S. Department
of Veterans Affairs

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Ashley Burress, Pharm.D., BCACP – Spinal Cord Injury/Home Based Primary Care

Dr. Burress is a clinical pharmacist specialist in Spinal Cord Injury and Home Based Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Pharmacy. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Tulalip Clinical Pharmacy with the University of Washington School of Pharmacy in Seattle, Washington. Dr. Burress currently practices in both Spinal Cord Injury and Home Based Primary Care programs, where her clinical areas of interest include anticoagulation, diabetes, hyperlipidemia, hypertension and HIV. Her hobbies include participating in philanthropic endeavors, traveling, painting, and spending time with both family and friends.

Christy Grandstaff, Pharm.D., BCPS - Home Based Primary Care

Dr. Grandstaff is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Home Based Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, then completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at St. John's (Mercy) Hospital in Springfield, Missouri. She completed her PGY-2 Internal Medicine Specialty Residency at St. Luke's Hospital in Chesterfield, Missouri. Prior to joining the VA, Dr. Grandstaff served as an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, with a practice site in Internal Medicine/Acute Care at St. Luke's Hospital. She also served as the PGY-2 Internal Medicine Residency Director at St. Luke's Hospital. Dr. Grandstaff currently practices in Home Based Primary Care at Jefferson Barracks. Her hobbies include chasing toddlers, doing laundry, and quiet time activities such as reading or running.

John A. Calcaterra, RPh, PA-C, CGP – Home Based Primary Care

Mr. Calcaterra is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Home Based Primary Care. He received his pharmacy degree from the University of Oklahoma. He received his physician assistant degree from St. Louis University. He was in private practice as a physician assistant for 25 years. He practiced as a pharmacist/physician assistant in the United States Air Force Reserve for 28 years before joining the VAMC as a pharmacist. His hobbies include his grandkids, traveling, and working on his daughter's 100 year old home on "The Hill".

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Andrea Chen, Pharm.D., BCPS –Chief of Pharmacy

Dr. Andrea Chen is the Chief of Pharmacy for the VA St. Louis Health Care System. She received her Pharm.D. from University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Pharmacy. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at VA St. Louis/St. Louis College of Pharmacy as well as PGY-2 Internal Medicine at VA St. Louis/St. Louis College of Pharmacy. She serves on various committees and boards at the local or VISN level to include IRB, P&T, and the Strategic Planning Access Team for VA St. Louis Health Care System.

Robert Connell, Pharm.D., BCPS, BCPP – Mental Health

Dr. Connell is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Mental Health. He received his Pharm.D. from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville School of Pharmacy. He completed his PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency and PGY-2 Psychiatric Pharmacy residency at the Chillicothe Veterans Affairs Medical Center. Dr. Connell currently practices as the clinical pharmacy specialist for inpatient psychiatry at the Jefferson Barracks VA. Dr. Connell holds an academic appointment as an Adjunct Clinical Instructor for the St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

Kristin Courtright, Pharm.D., BCPS, BCCCP – Critical Care

Dr. Courtright is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Critical Care. She received her Pharm.D. from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville School of Pharmacy. She completed both her PGY1 and PGY2 Residencies at the Phoenix VA Health Care System. Dr. Courtright currently practices as the clinical pharmacy specialist in the surgical intensive care unit. Her clinical areas of interest include critical care, pain/palliative care/sedation management, and cardiology. Her hobbies include travelling, hiking, and reading.

U.S. Department
of Veterans Affairs

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

P. Ben Erwin, Pharm.D., BCACP - Anticoagulation

Dr. Erwin is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Anticoagulation. He received his Pharm.D. from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. He completed his PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at the VAMC in Memphis, Tennessee. Dr. Erwin currently practices in the Outpatient Anticoagulation Clinic. His clinical areas of interest include anticoagulation and ambulatory care. His hobbies include playing guitar, St. Louis Cardinals Baseball, and spending time with his wife Ashley, son Elliott, and two dogs Sawyer and Finn.

Alexis Hagenhoff, Pharm.D., BCACP – Primary Care, Geriatrics Residency Coordinator

Dr. Hagenhoff is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Geriatrics and Primary/Ambulatory Care. She received her Pharm.D. from Butler University and completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy residency at the Bay Pines VA Healthcare System in St. Petersburg, FL. She was previously the anticoagulation supervisor and a primary care clinical pharmacy specialist at the Richard L. Roudebush VA Medical Center in Indianapolis, IN before joining the VA St. Louis clinical pharmacy team. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, sports, and all outdoor activities.

David Jansen, Pharm.D., BCPS, BCACP – Pain Management

Dr. Jansen is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Pain Management. He received his Pharm.D. from University of Missouri at Kansas City and completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at the Albuquerque VAMC. He was previously a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care at the Chillicothe VAMC and was a clinical pharmacy specialist in ESA management for VISN 15. Dr. Jansen currently serves on several committees, including VISN 15 and local Pain Committee, and the VA St. Louis Integrated Ethics Committee. Dr. Jansen's hobbies include singing in the church choir, hiking/walking and playing word games including Scrabble and Words with Friends. Dr. Jansen and his wife just welcomed a son and daughter into their lives in 2015.

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Sarah Kay, Pharm.D., AAHIVP, BCPS – Primary Care

Dr. Kay is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 2011, and completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency in 2012 at Schnucks Specialty Pharmacy with St. Louis College of Pharmacy. After residency, Dr. Kay started her career at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Reno, Nevada where she floated throughout inpatient and outpatient clinical care. She currently practices as a primary care clinical pharmacist at Jefferson Barracks Medical Center in St. Louis. Her clinical areas of interest include hyperlipidemia, hypertension, diabetes, and HIV. Her hobbies include traveling, watching and playing sports, and spending time with family and friends.

Travis Linneman, Pharm.D., BCPS – Internal Medicine
*PGY-2 Internal Medicine Residency Program Director

Dr. Travis Linneman is a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Internal Medicine. He received his Pharm.D. from the University of Kansas School of Pharmacy. He completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri. Dr. Linneman serves on a variety of local and national VA committees, holds an academic appointment of Associate Professor at St. Louis College of Pharmacy, and actively practices in both acute care medicine and the treatment of hepatitis C.

Michael Lorenz, Pharm.D., BCPS – Internal Medicine/COMPACT

Dr. Lorenz is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Internal Medicine. He received his Pharm.D. from St. Louis College of Pharmacy. He completed his PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency as well as his PGY-2 in Internal Medicine at the VA St. Louis Health Care System-John Cochran Division. Dr. Lorenz currently practices as an Internal Medicine Pharmacist. His clinical areas of interest include Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases.

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Jonathan McMahan, Pharm.D., BCPS – Critical Care
*PGY-1 Residency Program Director

Dr. McMahan is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Critical Care and the Residency Program Director for the PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency. He received his Pharm.D. from Butler University in 2006. He completed his PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency and PGY-2 Internal Medicine residency at the St. Louis VA Medical Center. Dr. McMahan currently practices as the MICU clinical pharmacy specialist. He holds an academic appointment as adjunct faculty at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

Ryan Moenster, Pharm.D., FIDSA, BCPS-ID – Infectious Disease
*PGY-2 Infectious Diseases Residency Program Director

Dr. Moenster is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Infectious Diseases and the Program Director for the PGY-2 Infectious Diseases Pharmacy Residency. He received his BS and Pharm.D. degrees from St. Louis College of Pharmacy, and completed two-years of post-graduate residency training at the VA St. Louis Health Care System. Dr. Moenster is also an associate professor of pharmacy practice at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

Catherine Palladino, Pharm.D., BCACP – Primary Care

Dr. Palladino is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care at the North County CBOC. She received her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2013. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency as well as her PGY-2 Ambulatory Care residency at the Lexington VA hospital in Kentucky. Dr. Palladino currently practices as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care at the North County CBOC. Her clinical areas of interest include chronic disease state management (particularly outpatient diabetes and hypertension), health literacy, and HIV. Her hobbies include traveling, discovering new restaurants, running, and winter sports.

U.S. Department
of Veterans Affairs

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Gillian Powderly, Pharm.D, BCPS – GI/HCV

Dr. Powderly is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Hepatitis C and GI. She received her Pharm.D. from Midwestern University. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at VA St. Louis Health Care System – John Cochran Division as well as PGY-2 in Infectious Diseases at VA St. Louis Health Care System – John Cochran Division. Dr. Powderly currently practices as a Hepatitis C pharmacist.

Abigail Scarpellini, Pharm.D., CGP – Home Based Primary Care

Dr. Scarpellini is a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Home Based Primary Care. She received her Pharm. D. from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. Her current practice is with the HBPC program, based out of the VA St. Louis Healthcare System, Jefferson Barracks Division. Dr. Scarpellini serves on the HBPC falls committee and has continued interest in Geriatric medicine. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, and outdoor activities.

Nancy Schmees, Pharm.D., BCACP, CDE – Primary Care/Telehealth

Dr. Schmees is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Telehealth. She received her Pharm.D. from Ohio Northern University. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at the Jefferson Barracks Division in the Saint Louis VA Healthcare System. Previously, Dr. Schmees was the clinical pharmacist at the Team 2 Annex but currently practices as the Telehealth Clinical Pharmacist with a focus in diabetes management. Her hobbies include traveling, photography and spending time with her son.

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Angelina Scholfield, Pharm.D., BCPS – Primary Care

Dr. Scholfield is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care at the St. Charles CBOC. She received her Pharm.D. from St. Louis College of Pharmacy. After completing a PGY1 Residency at the Deaconess Health System in Evansville, IN, she practiced as a clinical pharmacist for Deaconess, specializing in ambulatory care and internal medicine. Her clinical areas of interest include Diabetes, Hypertension, Smoking cessation, and Anticoagulation. Her hobbies include traveling, renovating and decorating my “new” home, spending time with family and friends, and playing with and attempting to train my two dogs.

Brian Scholfield, Pharm.D., - Emergency Medicine

Dr. Scholfield is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Emergency Medicine at John Cochran VA Medical Center. He received his Pharm.D. from St. Louis College of Pharmacy. Prior to coming to the VA, Dr. Scholfield worked at Deaconess Health System as a clinical specialist in Critical Care, Emergency Medicine, and Infectious Disease. On the weekend, you may find Dr. Scholfield working at Costco or serving as a veterinary pharmacist. His hobbies include sports, home improvement projects, enjoying the company of family and friends, and relaxing with his wife and two dogs.

Sumon Sen, Pharm.D., BCPS – Internal Medicine

Dr. Sen is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Internal Medicine. He received his Pharm.D. from The University of Texas at Austin College of Pharmacy (HOOK ‘EM HORNS). He completed his PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at the South Texas Veterans Health Care System as well as PGY-2 in Internal Medicine at the South Texas Veterans Health Care System. Dr. Sen currently practices as an Internal Medicine pharmacist at the VA St Louis Health Care System – John Cochran Division, where he also helps in pulmonary, rheumatology, and endocrine departments. His clinical areas of interest include rheumatoid arthritis, psoriasis, and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Danielle Skouby, Pharm.D., BCPS – Internal Medicine/Infectious Diseases
*Residency Coordinator

Dr. Skouby is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Inpatient Internal Medicine and Infectious Disease. She received her Pharm.D. from St. Louis College of Pharmacy. She completed both her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency and PGY-2 Internal Medicine residency at the VA St. Louis Medical Center. Dr. Skouby currently practices in inpatient internal medicine at the John Cochran division. Her clinical areas of interest are antimicrobial stewardship and neurology. Dr. Skouby serves on several local and VISN VA committees and workgroups.

Julie Spenner, Pharm.D., BCPS – Anticoagulation
*Residency Coordinator

Dr. Spenner is a clinical pharmacy specialist in the Anticoagulation Clinic. She received her BA in Biology at St. Mary's University and Pharm.D. from the University of Minnesota. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at St. Luke's Hospital. Dr. Spenner currently practices as a clinical pharmacist in the Anticoagulation Clinic. Her clinical areas of interest include anticoagulation and outpatient diabetes management. Her hobbies include spending time with her kids and husband, traveling, and all things foodie!

Alison Stauder, Pharm.D., BCOP – Hematology/Oncology, Anticoagulation

Dr. Stauder is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Hematology/Oncology and Inpatient Anticoagulation. She received her Pharm.D. from Purdue University College of Pharmacy in 2013. She completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency and PGY2 Oncology Residency at the Richard L. Roudebush VA Medical Center in Indianapolis, Indiana prior to transitioning to her clinical pharmacy specialist position within the Saint Louis VA system. Dr. Stauder currently practices in the oncology clinic at John Cochran, where she manages patients receiving oral chemotherapy medications. Her hobbies include spending time with family and friends, running, cooking, and traveling.

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Besu Teshome, Pharm.D., M.Sc., BCPS – Internal Medicine

Dr. Teshome is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Internal Medicine. He received his Pharm.D. from The University of Texas at Austin College of Pharmacy. He completed his Master of Science degree in Pharmaceutical Sciences in conjunction with a two-year specialty residency in Pharmacotherapy at The University of Texas at Austin and The University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio. He is also an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at St. Louis College of Pharmacy. His areas of interest include internal medicine, infectious diseases, and outcomes research.

Jennifer Wear, Pharm.D., BCPS – Anticoagulation, Primary Care

Dr. Wear is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Anticoagulation/Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at the William S. Middleton VA Hospital in Madison, Wisconsin. Dr. Wear served as an assistant professor of pharmacy practice at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, with a practice site in Primary Care at the John Cochran VA, before joining the STLVAHCS clinical pharmacy team. Dr. Wear currently practices as Anticoagulation Clinical Pharmacist at John Cochran. Her hobbies include cooking, gardening and enjoying the outdoors.

Tricia Whittaker, Pharm.D., CGP, BCPS – Home Based Primary Care

Dr. Whittaker is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Home Based Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from Ohio Northern University. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at the VA Medical Center in Huntington, WV. Her clinical areas of interest include medication safety and transitions of care. Dr. Whittaker's hobbies include traveling, watching Ohio State football, and all things Disney.

VA St. Louis Residency Preceptors

Jane Zhao, Pharm.D., BCPS – Primary Care

Dr. Zhao is a clinical pharmacy specialist in Primary Care. She received her Pharm.D. from University of Oklahoma. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residency at VA St. Louis Health Care System. Dr. Zhao currently practices as a clinical pharmacy specialist at Team 2 Annex. Her hobbies include hiking, running, playing the keyboard, and trying out different local restaurants.